Top prizes on offer in Motorcraft Mustang Cup Australia

Not only is the inaugural Motorcraft Mustang Cup Australia series off to a hot start on the track, but there are also possibly career-defining opportunities being offered for both rising stars and experienced guns alike.

Thanks to the breadth of Ford Racing's motorsport pipeline, it is feasible that a driver competing in this year's Motorcraft Mustang Cup Australia championship could one day end up driving at Hypercar at the 24 Hours of Le Mans, with each rung of their career ladder being spent in Blue Oval products.

Starting with the Mustang Dark Horse R, drivers can then graduate into GT4, followed by GT3, and then finally the World Endurance Championship's Hypercar Class. That's without mentioning Ford Racing's strong presence in the Supercars championship as well as its involvement as engine supplier to the Red Bull Racing Formula 1 Team.

Along with being the prime starting point for diverse racing opportunities within in the Ford Racing world, Motorcraft Mustang Cup is offering one of the most meaningful prize pools in domestic racing for this year's competitors.

Phillip Island and The Bend hosted the opening two rounds of the season, with star Josh Anderson leading the way in the outright Dark Horse class as the field went to race 3 at the Queensland Raceway.

If Anderson continues his form to the end of the season, he is poised to win a test day with champion Supercars team Triple Eight Race Engineering and a $5,000 Michelin tyre credit for next year's series.

Formula Ford graduate Joe Fawcett sits second in the outright standings, but leads the Dark Horse Junior standings.

Joe Fawcett scored his maiden pole position at The Bend.

Contested by drivers under the age of 23, the Dark Horse Junior champion will win an all-expenses-paid trip to the Ford Racing Technical Centre in Concord, North Carolina. The trip for two includes experiencing the facility's world-class simulators and mentors, showcasing the pathway to a potential international career. A prize supported by control tyre supplier Michelin.

Round 2 at The Bend featured a full podium where prizes for Dark Horse, Dark Horse Junior and Dark Horse Legends were awarded.

Keith Kassulke currently leads the Dark Horse Legends category for the experienced guns and is line to receive a 12-month vehicle lease with his choice between a Ford Mustang or Ranger Raptor.

In addition to the end-of-season prize pools, Ford Insure is awarding $1,000 for each Johnson Cup (Saturday) and Ambrose Cup (Sunday) Pole Position, meaning there's $12,000 up for grabs over the season.

It was all smiles for Supercars driver Aaron Cameron after pole and a thrilling race victory in a cameo appearance at Phillip Island.

Keith Kassulke is a contender in the Dark Horse Legend class after success at Phillip Island.

Come and join us for rounds 4-6 of the Motorcraft Mustang Cup

Round 4: July 24-26 – Hidden Valley Raceway, Northern Territory

Round 5: September 18-20 – Sydney Motorsport Park, New South Wales

Round 6: October 30 – November 1 – Sandown Raceway, Victoria
